

Ways to Study Spelling Words

Listed below are 36 ways to study spelling words.

- ★ Write your spelling words three times each
 - ★ Write a paragraph using the words
 - ★ Draw a picture of the meaning of the words
 - ★ Write a sentence for each word
 - ★ Invent a word search
 - ★ Make up a code for letters or the words
- ★ Type words on the computer in different ways--more than once
 - ★ Record your spelling words--say, spell, say
 - ★ Alphabetize the words
- ★ Write the dictionary respelling of each word
 - ★ Write the meaning of each word

★ Divide each word into syllables

★ Write the word and circle the vowels

★ Write the word and circle the consonants

★ Cross out the silent letters

★ Make flash cards

★ Write a synonym for each word

★ Write an antonym for each word

★ Parent given practice test

★ Write tongue twisters with the words

★ Scramble the words and give to a friend to solve

★ Write a story with the words

★ Draw a picture and "hide" your words in the picture

★ Write words in a three-word sentence

★ Write words in a SUPER sentence-5 or more spelling words in one sentence

★ Write a song with your words

★ Use calligraphy or a colorful way to write the words

- ★ Use a piece of clothing YOUR PARENTS HAVE OKAYED and design a way to display the words
- ★ Write your words on a dry erase board
- ★ Write your words with finger paints
- ★ Spell your words with magnetic letters
- ★ Write your words with water colors
- ★ Stamp your words
- ★ Make your words into puzzles
- ★ Write words neatly in pen or marker
- ★ Can you come with a different way to practice your spelling words?